

SPORTS

Former Boone High baseball coach Bill Sapp (center) receives a plaque from Rick Davis (right) and Kelly McMullen (left) before competition began in a Boone High baseball reunion Saturday night at Memorial Park. Players from the 1965 and 1967 state championship teams and from the 1969-72 era participated in the reunion.

Toreador Baseball Reunion

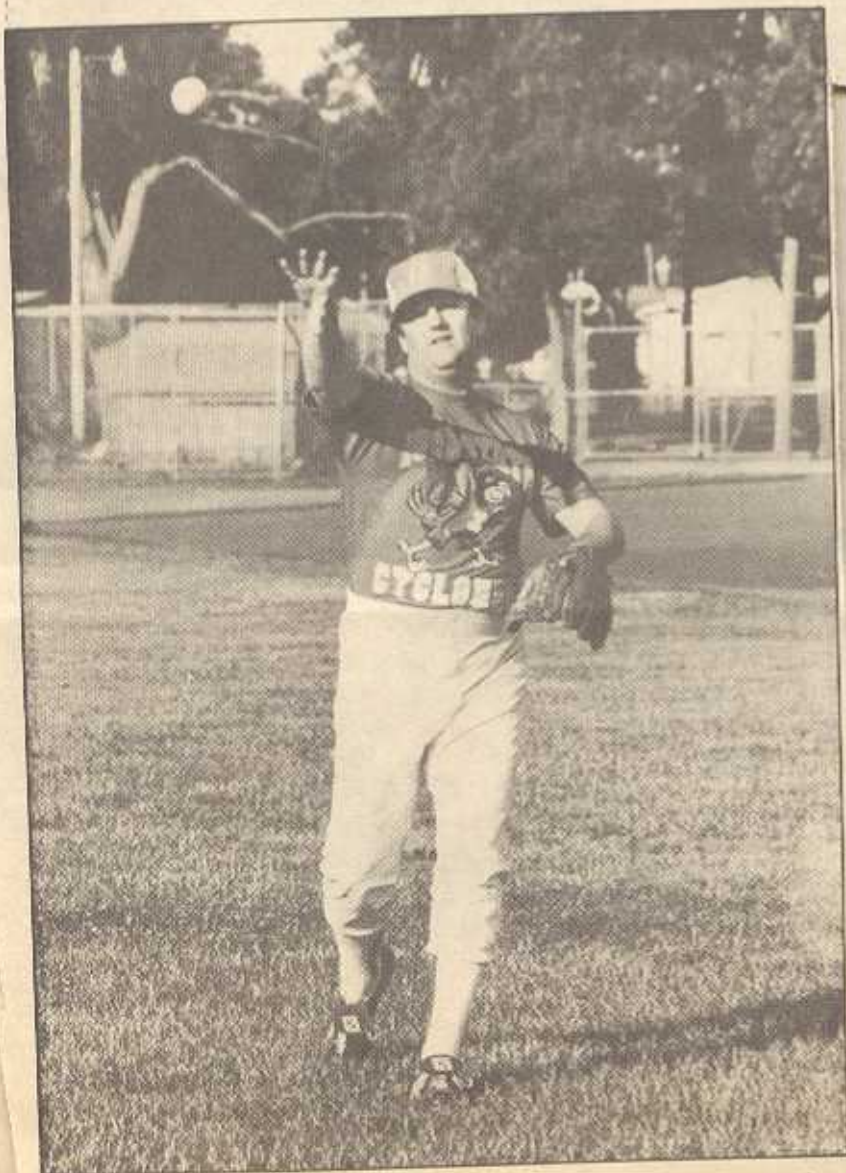

Boone High baseball coach Rick Davis (left) and Steve Crandell were among the 42 former players who returned for the reunion. Davis is wearing the uniform he wore as a member of Boone High's state championship team in 1965.

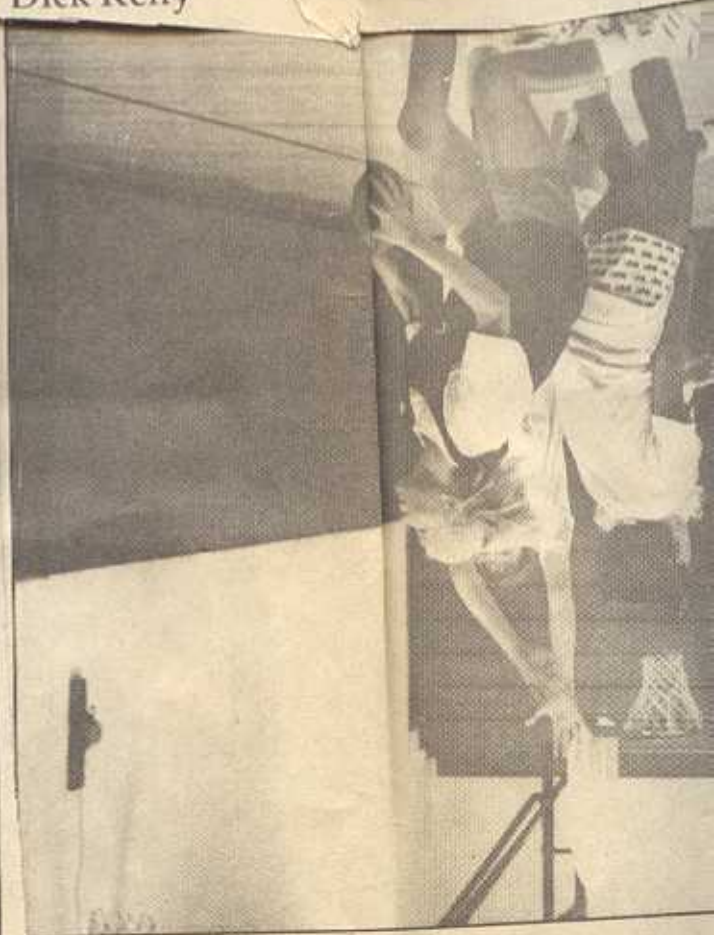

It seemed like old times as former Boone High baseball player Bill Sapp grabbed the fun and began infield practice with his players. He conducted practice with all three teams before round-robin play began.

Boone Today
photos by Dick Kelly

Jack Mustapha, who pitched Boone High to the 1965 state championship with three consecutive no-hitters, warms up before once again taking the mound at Memorial Park Saturday night. Mustapha's 1965 state championship team.

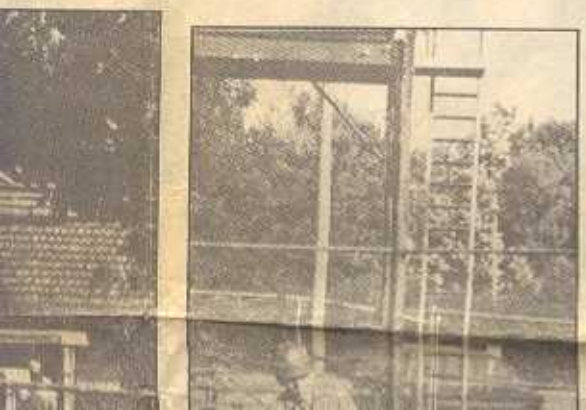

(right) and Kelly McMullen (left) before competition 1965 and 1967 state championship teams and from

The grandchildren of former Boone High baseball coach Bill Sapp traveled to Boone from their home in Overland Park, Kan. to help honor their grandfather. From the left are: Amanda, Brett and Andrew. Sapp's daughter Jackie (Sapp) Turner made the uniforms her children are wearing.

Reunion

and Kelly McMullen (left) before competition and 1967 state championship teams and from

The grandchildren of former Boone High baseball coach Bill Sapp traveled to Boone from their home in Overland Park, Kan. to help honor their grandfather. From the left are: Amanda, Brett and Andrew. Sapp's daughter Jackie (Sapp) Turner made the uniforms her children are wearing.

Reunion

players who
Boone High's state

It seemed like old times when former Boone High baseball coach Bill Sapp grabbed the fungo bat and began infield practice with his players. He conducted infield practice with all three teams be-

Roger Dutton, one of the greatest athletes ever to wear the green and red colors of Boone High, returned to his hometown for the weekend reunion. The former players gathered at Sapp's home Friday evening and enjoyed an afternoon at Herman Park before getting together for a few innings of baseball Saturday evening at Memorial Park.