A tough Newton team fell, 21-14, in a conference showdown as the Toreadors took a 14-0 first half lead and then beat back lone Newton touchdowns in the third and fourth periods.

Veteran Cardinal coach Paul Turner felt compelled to come to the Toreador locker room to offer congratulations.

"You're a mighty fine football team, state champs," he said.

That win assured the Toreadors of their second straight Central Iowa Conference championship, just the third in the school's history.

The following week at Grinnell, the Toreadors concluded the school's most successful football season in history with a 42-13 clubbing of the Tigers.

Rinehart, Hora and Riker all had 100-plus rushing games and the Toreadors were in front, 14-0, before Grinnell ran a single offensive play.

So that was it. There were no state playoffs in those days.

The United Press International final poll showed Boone on top, statewide, with Sioux City Central, Mount Pleasant and Cedar Rapids Jefferson following.

The Associated Press final poll showed Cedar Rapids Jefferson on top with Sioux City Central second and Boone third.

Jefferson received 13 first place votes, Central four and Boone six in that AP poll.

In review, here are some of the 1964 team's top accomplishments: First unbeaten season in 46 years and the third undefeated season in Boone's 112-years of football. Notched 13 consecutive wins over two seasons. Became the greatest scoring team in BHS history with an average of 32.4 points scored per game. Won their second consecutive Central Iowa Conference title and just their third in the 37-year history of that league. Became the first team in BHS history to record eight victories in a season.
